IT'S ALL ABOUT... BEING FABULOUS

A-list retreats, banquet dining, New Year's Eve in a fort... we're bidding farewell to 2015 with decadence

Sashaying down the Givenchy catwalk in lace, fringed gowns, there was only one word to describe the models' resplendent ensembles: fabulous. It was a theme that continued over at Chanel, where Julianne Moore and Lily-Rose Depp – dripping in diamonds – took a spin on Karl Lagerfeld's roulette table. That's right, if there's one way we're seeing 2015 out, it's in serious, unadulterated, over-the-top style...

FASHION, DARLING

Late-night shop at Liberty London or head over to Harrods to pick up those last-minute Christmas gifts. Or, if you're looking for some inspiration, book yourself onto The Connaught hotel's The Origins of British Luxury walk, in association with Fox & Squirrel, and explore high-end British fashion and its history. Impossible Wardrobes by Tilda Swinton and Olivier Saillard (£85, Rizzoli), and Dior By Avedon (£115.34, Rizzoli) will also provide some fabulous fashion coffee-table inspo.

COCKTAILS O'CLOCK

After wreaking havoc on the high street, relax with a pit stop at Sketch for a cocktail (or two) and check out artist Bethan Laura Wood's installation, where she will be transforming the entrance of the eponymous restaurant with PVC jewels galore. Or, book the chef's table for ten people at Darbaar in Shoreditch – inspired by Indian banquets, you'll leave feeling like royalty.

ELITE RETREAT

When you're worn out from all the spending (and boozing), make like the uber-cool celeb set, including Daisy Lowe and Eddie Redmayne, and book a weekend's retreat at the Soho Farmhouse. Relax on the spa island (of course there's a spa island) before dining on tasty Tom Aikens-designed dishes. Well, there's nothing more fabulous than a Michelin-starred chef, is there?

CHIC COUNTDOWN

As the clock strikes midnight on 31 December, make sure you've got your glad rags on and a glass of champagne in hand. For a night you'll never forget, book the Spitbank Fort – an actual fort located just off the coast of Portsmouth – for dinner, dancing and an overnight stay in one of Britain's most sought-after locations. Alternatively, hire out the St Pancras Clock Tower at King's Cross – there's no way you will miss the countdown there.

HELLO, 2016

To be wined and dined in sumptuous surroundings, head to the Corinthia Hotel London, where the bubbles will be free-flowing all night. Or, if you really want to push the boat out (literally), charter your very own with a Thames Luxury Charter. You'll be sailing your way into 2016 in seriously fabulous style.
